UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING FOOTBALL POSTGAME NOTES

Following a 51-44 Road Loss To San Jose State on Oct. 26, 2013

Team Notes

- The Pokes and Spartans tangled for the eighth time in series history. UW now is 6-2 versus San Jose State.
- Redshirt freshman Josh Teeter carried the Wyoming flag onto the field Saturday for Wyoming, while senior running back Tedder Easton carried the Special Forces flag.
- The Cowboys led 23-14 at halftime, the fifth time this season UW has led at halftime. The Cowboys are now 4-1 when leading at the half.
- Saturday marked the first time that UW has lost back-to-back games this year.

Offensive Notes

- With three passing touchdowns Saturday, junior quarterback Brett Smith now has been responsible for a score in 31-straight games, solidifying his current Mountain West record. Already No. 1 in career TD passes in UW history, Smith has 66 for his career. Smith set a school record with a 93-yard pass play in the first quarter, surpassing the previous high of 91.
- UW's 322 yards on the ground marked the first time UW has had 300-plus rushing game this season, and the most since 2011 when the Pokes had 382 versus Texas State.
- Sophomore running back Shaun Wick had a career day with 234 yards on 17 carries. He tallied career-long 67-yard rush. It is the fourth time he has rushed for 100-plus yards this season. He scored the 10th rushing TD of his career. That was the most rush yards for a Cowboy in a single game since Nov. 1, 2008, when Devin Moore had 234 versus San Diego State. Wick now has 1,126 rush yards in his career.
- Miller caught his fifth receiving TD of his career.
- Senior wide receiver Robert Herron caught his 15th career TD pass Saturday to move into fifth place in UW history. He finished with 149 yards on five catches, including a school-record 93-yard reception.
- Senior running back Brandon Miller rushed for 82 yards to reach 1,058 yard rushings for his career.
- Redshirt freshman Jake Maulhardt caught the first TD of his career Saturday, a 14-yard pass from Smith.
- Senior running back Tedder Easton had two rush TDs Saturday, a career-high mark. He finished with 12 yards.

Defensive Notes

- The UW defense surrendered 50-plus points for the second-straight week.
- Junior linebacker Jordan Stanton had 17 tackles, and now has 35 in the last two games.
- Junior buck Sonny Puletasi has a sack on the first series, his third of the season. He finished with three tackles for loss.
- Senior defensive tackle Justin Bernthaler forced a fumble Saturday, his first of the season and second of his career.
- With 14 tackles, junior linebacker Mark Nzeocha now has 112 for his career. He forced a fumble in the first quarter, the second time in his career he has done that.
- Junior cornerback Blair Burns recovered a fumble, the third fumble recovery of his career.

Special Teams Notes

- Junior place-kicker Stuart Williams hit his a season-long 43-yard field goal Saturday.
