

Colorado State vs. San Jose State – POSTGAME NOTES

Nov. 18, 2017 | Sonny Lubick Field at CSU Stadium | Fort Collins, Colo.

Colorado State 42, San Jose State 14

TEAM

- CSU set program single-season attendance records this season with 32,062 fans per game and total attendance of 192,369. The previous records were 31,292 per game in 1998 (4 games) and 187,344 total in 1994 (6 games)
 - Today's attendance: 25,743
- The Rams' offense produced 606 total yards today, topping the 600-yard mark for a school-record fourth time this season. The previous high was three 600-yard games in 2013. It was the seventh time the team has eclipsed 500 yards in a game this season. The Rams have had 500+ total yards 16 times under Head Coach Mike Bobo and Offensive Coordinator Will Friend (since 2015).
- CSU's 301 rushing yards marked a season high, and were the most since the team ran for 412 against New Mexico on Nov. 19, 2016.
- SJSU scored on its opening drive. The Rams then held the Spartans scoreless for the next 48:01 (SJSU scored a TD with 6:47 to go in the fourth quarter)
- After punting on its first possessions, Colorado State scored touchdowns on four of its next five possessions. Combined with last week's performance, in which it scored touchdowns on each of its first five possessions, CSU has scored touchdowns on 9 of its 12 first-half possessions in the past two games. The Rams today had four touchdown drives of 70 yards or longer (70, 71, 75, 87).
- With a bowl game left to play, Colorado State is on pace to set school records for total offense, first downs and third-down conversion rate:
 - Total Offense: 2017, 501.0 ... School record: 480.9 in 2014
 - First Downs: 25.4 per game ... School record: 23.2 in 2015
 - Third-Down Conversions: 50.6% ... School record: 48.9 in 2014
